

Ingram Distribution Option:

Title of Work _____

ISBN of Work _____

Retail Book Price _____

Through the Ingram Program, your book will be available through an electronic data feed to the following prominent markets:

Ingram—(the nation’s largest book wholesaler to bookstores and libraries).

Baker & Taylor—wholesale book distributor to libraries and bookstores

Amazon.com—the nation’s largest online book retailer

Barnes & Noble—the nation’s largest bookstore chain

NACSCorp—National Assoc. of College Stores (wholesaler to the academic market)

However, your book will also be available through other USA and global markets.

DISCOUNTS: It is up to the author to choose the discount you will allow for your book. Although a 55% discount is recommended by Ingram, they will still list the title in their system no matter what discount you select. You may change your discount at any time. Goose River Press usually ops for a 40% discount.

Please circle one: 55% 50% 45% 40%.

You do not have to supply Goose River Press with books to participate in this program. We will print them as they are sold and you don't have to pay shipping, so you will receive more profit for your book. The print cost is deducted from your profit and payment is made to author 20-30 days after the end of a quarter in which payment is received from Ingram by Goose River Press. Ingram pays Goose River Press approximately 90 days after the sale. If your title has no sales in any given quarter, a quarterly report will not be sent.

RETURN POLICY: No returns or Full Return Policy (circle one).
(Some retailers will not purchase copies without a full return policy.)

If books are returned, the author is still responsible for the print charge for the book. Returned books should be: returned to Goose River Press or destroyed (circle one). Typically, it is cheaper to have the book destroyed as cost of shipping is more than cost to print the book.
