Your royalty rate is based off the retail outlets advertised rate. This can vary from time to time due to using a third party publisher. Goose River Press eBook Publishing reserves the right to use a third party for the benefit of the APA. This occasionally happens when a retail distribution point has only assigned a few aggregators to process their catalogs. It is common practice for Goose River Press eBook Publishing to directly publish your eBook through distribution. Goose River Press eBook Publishing does not retain any royalty proceeds from sales of eBooks. Goose River Press does charge a 5.25% Administration fee. When using a third party publisher, Goose River Press will always assure royalties to APA at a minimum rate of 60%

Therefore, if another publisher will allow you to keep electronic rights to the Work, you may continue to Publish the Work electronically while publishing a printed version of the Work with a print publisher. These rules are subject to change from time to time, upon electronic or other notice to the End-users and any other users.

7. APA-Controlled Terms. Goose River Press eBook Publishing allows APA to control pricing and output formats, with the exception of terms where otherwise stated in this agreement.

8. Statements, fees and Payments of APA Royalties:

Goose River Press eBook Publishing pays APA royalties on a quarterly basis, approximately 20-30 days following the close of each calendar quarter.

Goose River Press eBook Publishing charges a varying fee for services provided at time of service. Payment is due at the time order is placed. Special accounts that are invoiced once a week electronically are noted that payment is due upon receipt. Goose River Press eBook Publishing reserves the right to charge a 2% late fee every fifteen days past the first initial fifteen days of receipt.

8a. Tax withholding: The United States Internal Revenue Service (IRS) requires Goose River Press eBook Publishing to withhold taxes from net proceeds in cases where proper tax information is not provided. For US residents and US businesses, Goose River Press eBook Publishing requires a SSN or EIN, plus a valid US postal mailing address. If US-based APAs do not provide valid tax id information, then the IRS requires Goose River Press eBook Publishing to withhold 28% of earnings which Goose River Press eBook Publishing must remit to the IRS within days of transacting the payments to APAs/publishers. For APAs and publishers outside the US, the automatic withholding rate is 30%. Many countries have tax treaties with the United States that entitle residents and businesses located in these countries to receive either partial or full exemption from the 30% tax withholding. To qualify, APAs and publishers should first check if their country has a tax treaty. If a tax treaty is in effect, then the APA must apply for and obtain an ITIN from the US IRS. Following receipt of the ITIN, the APA must complete the W8-BEN form (or related form, see IRS instructions), sign it, and return it to Goose River Press eBook Publishing.

It is intended that the right granted by this subparagraph 13(2) shall not be unreasonably or frivolously exercised by the Goose River Press eBook Publishing.

14. Disclaimer of Publisher's Warranties.

1. DRM, Piracy and the "Honor" System. Goose River Press eBook Publishing is a strong proponent of APA's rights, and the right of APAs and copyright owners to receive compensation for their digitally published Works. Therefore, Goose River Press eBook Publishing strongly discourages piracy/infringement of APA Work and encourages customers to purchase licensed copies. However, Goose River Press eBook Publishing does not always publish works containing digital rights management schemes that limit the customer's ability to consume APA's Work as they see fit. Therefore, Goose River Press eBook Publishing cannot completely prevent piracy/infringement of APA's Work (the reality of the matter is that even DRMed content can be reproduced and pirated, just as easily as a printed book can be scanned and digitized). When APA lists the Work on Goose River Press eBook Publishing you are trusting the consumer to honor your legal copyright and abide by the licensing terms you set. There is a growing body of evidence indicating that DRMed Works do not sell as well as non-DRMed Work because customers resent limitations and don't appreciate being mistrusted. Non-DRMed Works often outsell DRMed Works by leveraging the viral nature of uninhibited sampling and sharing which can dramatically increase your total audience and sales opportunities. There is also evidence that by pricing your Works for less than printed equivalents, you can further decrease piracy and increase sales volume. You understand that Goose River Press eBook Publishing is distributing the Works according to the honor system. Some areas of distribution we do add the DRM, however we feel the blurbs we place on the title sheet of your eBook is sufficient enough to keep people honest.
2. Events Voiding Warranty. Goose River Press eBook Publishing does not warrant the (a) defects caused by failure to provide a suitable installation environment for the Product, (b) damage caused by disasters such as acts of God, wars, riots, strikes, terrorism, governmental restrictions, fire, flood, wind, and lightning, (c) damage caused by unAPAized attachments, modifications or mis-configurations to the Goose River Press eBook Publishing Environment, or (e) any other abuse or misuse by APA or the End-Users. Any breach of the End-User License Agreement by or on behalf of an End-User, including, without limitation, unauthorized modification or distribution of the Product or any portion thereof, will void any and all warranties.
3. WARRANTY DISCLAIMER. All Works and the Service is provided to End Users "AS IS" and "WITH ALL FAULTS." THE ENTIRE RISK AS TO THE SELECTION AND USE OF THE GOOSE RIVER PRESS EBOOK PUBLISHING SERVICE OR ANY MODIFICATIONS THERETO OR THE WORK IS WITH APA AND END-USERS. GOOSE RIVER PRESS EBOOK PUBLISHING DOES NOT WARRANT THAT THE PRODUCT OR MODIFICATIONS WILL MEET THE REQUIREMENTS OF END-USERS. TO THE EXTENT THAT GOOSE RIVER PRESS EBOOK PUBLISHING MAY NOT, AS A MATTER OF APPLICABLE LAW, DISCLAIM ANY WARRANTY, THE SCOPE AND DURATION OF SUCH WARRANTY SHALL BE THE MINIMUM PERMITTED UNDER APPLICABLE LAW.
4. LIMITATION ON DAMAGES. IN NO CASE SHALL GOOSE RIVER PRESS EBOOK PUBLISHING BE LIABLE TO APA OR END-USERS, OR ANY OTHER THIRD PARTY, FOR ANY SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, INDIRECT, EXEMPLARY, PUNITIVE, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES OF ANY KIND. IN NO CASE SHALL GOOSE RIVER PRESS EBOOK PUBLISHING OR ITS RETAILERS BE LIABLE FOR ERRORS OF ANY KIND THAT RESULT IN SHIPMENT OR AVAILABILITY DELAYS, MISPRICINGS, OR INACCURATE OR INCOMPLETE PRODUCT LISTINGS. It is the APA responsibility to monitor retailer listings and report errors to Goose River Press eBook Publishing, in which case Goose River Press eBook Publishing on a best efforts basis will strive to work with the retailer to correct the error. In the event that Goose River Press eBook Publishing is found liable for any damages, for any reason whatsoever, APA hereby expressly agrees that, in no event will Goose River Press eBook Publishing' liability to APA exceed the amounts collected by Goose River Press eBook Publishing for the APA's book in question.
